Senior Advisor Wellbeing, Health and Safety

- Work in one of our 6 offices across the motu
- Join a collaborative and engaging team
- Work in an organisation committed to accessibility

Join Whaikaha and use your health and safety generalist experience to support our kamahi to provide better outcomes for disabled people.

Ko wai mātou | About Us:

Whaikaha – Ministry of Disabled People has a unique mandate of having responsibility to steward change across Government, while commissioning disability support services; as well as transforming how these services are commissioned and delivered.

Disabled people expect to have greater choice and control over the supports and services they receive to lead their best life. We are committed to this by strengthening relationships and working in partnership with disabled people, tāngata whaikaha Māori, Pacific disabled people and their whānau.

Whaikaha presents an exciting opportunity to make a real difference. The call for “Nothing about us, without us” is an integral part of our operation.

Mō tēnei tūranga mahi | About the Role:

As the Senior Advisor, Wellbeing, Health and Safety (WHS) you will provide best practice advice and support across all areas of wellbeing, health, and safety at Whaikaha.

You will take the lead on projects and work programme deliverables that contribute to the development and continuous improvement of the WHS structure.

You will develop, refine and implement health and safety policies and processes that will support a healthy and safe work environment for all our kaimahi.
